Cure Effected.
The wise physician frequently finds it necessary to "minister to a mind diseased" rather than to the body that merely sympathizes with it. A young woman who had gone from her home in an inland village to visit friends in the great city for the first time in her life soon began to lose all appetite and grow thin and hollow eyed.

Her friends, fearing that she was going into a decline, called in a physician in spite of her protests and asked him to prescribe for her. He asked a few questions, noted her symptoms, gave her malady a scientific name and said as he handed her a bottle of pellets:

"It will be necessary, miss, first of all, for you to leave the crowded city. The air here is not good for you. Have your friends in the country?"

"Why, I live in the country, doctor," she replied.

"Very good. Return, then, to your home, engage in light exercise, with frequent walks in the open air, and take five of these pellets every morning before breakfast."

She returned to her village home, observed the doctor's directions faithfully, paying particular attention to taking the medicine, and was well in less than a week.

Meeting the family physician one day, it occurred to her to tell him her experience. He listened to her, asked to see the pellets, tasted them, and, finding them to be merely sugar unmedicated, said:

"What did your city doctor tell you was your ailment?"

"He said it was nostalgia."

"Humph! Do you know what nostalgia means?"

"No, sir."

"It means homesickness."—Youth's Companion.

A Lost Opportunity.

"Well, Uncle William," said the president of the emigration society, "I suppose you heard de news?"

"No. What's stirrin'?"

"W'y, you ain't heard 'bout de treasure?"

"Not a word. What he done now?"

"Run off wid de funds—tuk ever' dollar wid him!"

"Lawd, Lawd! En how much wuz in de treasury?"

"Fo' hundred dollars!"

"En you say he gone wid it?"

"Clean gone!"

The old man seemed wrapped in thought and had a faraway look in his eyes. "Fo' hundred dollars!" he repeated to himself. "Fo' hundred dollars!"

En des ter think er it! I wuz de treasurer er de society for two weeks en had ever' dollar er dat money in my power! My, my! Fo' hundred dollars—fo' hundred bright, silver dollars in a shinin' lump! Bre'r Johnson, will you please, suh, do me a favor?"

"Des name it, Uncle William."

"Take des heah hick'ry stick, suh, en hit me 'cross de head en den kick me ha'd ez you kin, suh, out de do!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Pa'n and Payn.

Barry Pain relates that he once sent the late James Payn a series of parodies for Cornhill. Payn accepted them, but there was a difficulty. One of them was a parody of an author, X, who was a personal friend of Payn's and a very sensitive man, who would not take the sincerest form of flattery in the spirit in which it was offered. Now, it happens that there is a considerable resemblance between the style of X, and that of another author of the same school, Y. Payn suggested that Pain should take out X's name from the title of the parody and substitute that of the school of fiction to which he belonged. "Then," he said, "X will think that it's meant for Y."

"But," Pain asked, "what about Y?"

"That's all right," he answered.

"Y will know that it's meant for X."

A Haunted Railroad Car.

Every one has heard of haunted houses, but the railroad men know there are haunted cars as well. For instance, on the L. and N. there is a caboose known as "1908" which carries on in the most supernatural manner. What do you say to a caboose that suddenly begins to shake and shiver like a man with the ague, and this, too, when it is standing alone on the track? My informant solemnly asserted also that "1908" is subject to attacks of hysteria. It jumps up and down without the slightest provocation. He says it did the most remarkable thing, however, one day near Richmond. It was standing on a siding with all brakes set. All at once it started and ran up grade, over an embankment into a field.—Paris (Ky.) Reporter.

Dr. Mary Walker Sits Like a Woman.

The ex-queen of Hawaii, surrounded by her court, was engaged in earnest conversation with Dr. Mary Walker. The little doctor was neat and spick and span from the collar of her Prince Albert coat to the soles of her little boots. She was dressed like a man. She wore no petticoats, but the serpent trail of the petticoats her foremothers wore is over her still, for all the evening she sat with her knees close together. She wears trousers, but the inherited restraint of the petticoats binds her knees. She may dress like a man, but she'll always sit as women sit.—Washington Post.

Benefits of a King's Favor.

Not long ago his majesty of Siam gave an Italian (for painting one of his wives from a photograph) "the grand cross of the Siamese crown." It is a rather large order. "This cross," said his majesty graciously, "will entitle you to carry 12 wives. It is a distinction I seldom confer, so I hope you will make good use of it."—Siam Observer.

The Trans-Mississippi and International Congress is composed of delegates from every State and Territory West of the Mississippi river. The idea of this exposition originated in that Congress at its session at Omaha in 1895, and the project has become a National enterprise and the National Commission has been organized and is in active service, there being one commissioner for each of the several departments of the Government. Most of the Trans-Mississippi states are well along in the way of gathering exhibits from their respective States and many of them have made liberal appropriations, while others are preparing exhibits through private enterprise.

Vice-President H. B. Maxson of Reno, has made arrangements whereby he can get Nevada exhibits, shipped from any point in the State along the line of the C. P. R. R., to Omaha and return, and he requests all persons who wish the interests of the State advertised, to co-operate with the Exposition County Commissioner of his county, whose name is shown above, and prepare some product of his county and send it to the nearest point on the C. P. R. R. from which place it will be sent to Omaha and exhibited, and returned to the same point at the close of the exposition, free of expense to the exhibitor. Full information should accompany everything sent for exhibition. Before sending anything to the line of the railroad a full description should be given. The Exposition Commissioner of the county, who in turn will notify the Vice-President, who will notify him what action to take, otherwise there might be many duplications. Apply to your County Representative for further information, and don't let this opportunity of advertising the resources of Nevada be lost.

Resolved, That the people of the island of Cuba are and of right ought to be free and independent.

SHALL VOLUNTEERS BE DENIED THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE?

The vote of Nevada will be reduced several hundred by reason of the Spanish war. Men from every county in the State, except Nye and Lincoln, have enlisted for two years, unless sooner discharged. It must not be inferred that the people of Nye and Lincoln are less patriotic than those of other counties for such is not the case. Quite a number of men from both counties have offered their services to the Governor, but they have not been accepted for the reason that the War Department does not like to incur the expense of transportation of volunteers several hundred miles by stage.

That the volunteers should not be denied the right of suffrage while absent from their homes fighting for the United States is apparent from Article II, Section 3, of the Constitution of Nevada, which reads as follows:

"The right of suffrage shall be enjoyed by all persons, otherwise entitled to the same, who may be in the military or naval service of the United States; provided, the votes so cast shall be made to apply to the county and township of which said voters were bona fide residents at the time of their enlistment; and provided further, that the payment of a poll tax or a registration of such voters shall not be required as a condition to the right of voting. Provision shall be made by law regulating the manner of voting, holding elections, and making returns of such elections, wherein other provisions are not contained in this Constitution."

Such a law as the Constitution requires was enacted by the Legislature of Nevada shortly after the State was admitted and volunteers then engaged in fighting Indians voted in the field. For some reason the Legislature of 1878 repealed the Act and that subsequent Legislatures failed to pass another Act regulating the manner of voting and holding elections by volunteers in the military service of the United States.

If the financial condition of the State warrants the expenditure the Governor should not hesitate in convening the Legislature in special session for the purpose of complying with the constitutional requirement that provision shall be made by law regulating the manner of voting, holding elections, and making returns of such elections, that Nevada volunteers, otherwise entitled to the same, who may be in the military or naval service of the United States, shall not be denied the right of suffrage.

The financial condition of the State is such that it cannot well afford to incur the expense of a special session of the Legislature, but depriving six hundred of our patriotic citizens of the right of suffrage, which the Constitution plainly declares they shall not be deprived of while in the military or naval service of the United States, is a serious matter, and one which deserves the most deliberate consideration of the Governor. Doubtless if the question is taken to the courts the Governor would be required by writ of mandate to convene the Legislature to provide by law for the volunteers voting for State, county and township officers.

Examination for the General Land Office July 27th and 28th.

The United States Civil Service commission announces that examinations may be taken on July 27th and 28th, 1898, at the cities named below for positions in the offices of Surveyor General, Register, and Receiver.

- (1) Clerk qualified as stenographer, typewriter, and land office bookkeeper.
- (2) Clerk with a thorough knowledge of land law and a general knowledge of the system of public land surveying.
- (3) Clerk with the qualifications of a land surveyor, including platting, computing, and drawing, and also a knowledge of the system of public land surveying.

- (2) First grade basis, 50 per cent; public land laws of the United States, 35 per cent; and general questions of the system of public land surveying, 15 per cent.
- (3) First grade basis, 50 per cent;

public land laws of the United States, 20 per cent; surveying, including public land surveying, 50 per cent.

(4) Letter-writing, 10 per cent; arithmetic and elementary mathematics 20 per cent; public land laws, 30 per cent; elementary land surveying, 10 per cent; topographic drawing, 30 per cent.

The time allowed for each of these examinations is two days. The basis and practical tests in land office bookkeeping will be given on July 27th, and the practical tests in stenography and typewriting will be given to applicants, for the examination requiring them later. Full notice of the time and place will be furnished to each competitor by the commission.

Applicants are advised that writing and drawing paper will be furnished, but that they will be required to provide themselves with writing and drawing inks, pens, scales, squares, and drawing board, for use during the examination.

This is open to all citizens of the United States who are of legal age, are of good moral character, and are of good repute. Persons desiring to enter the examination should at once write to the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., for application blanks, Forms 304 and 375, which should be properly executed and forwarded to the commission.

In case the applicants are unable to forward their applications to the commission and receive admission cards prior to the examination, arrangements will be made to examine them, provided their requests are received at this office in time to permit of the shipment of papers to the place where they desire examination.

The commission desires to establish ample registers of eligibles with the qualifications above described, as the result of this examination; and it therefore hopes that all persons who desire and are capable of filling the positions mentioned will at once apply for application blanks.

Says Elko County offers Great Opportunities

W. L. Brandon, school principal at Tuscarora, has returned to Reno to spend his vacation. He reports Tuscarora as having good prospects as well as the various mining districts in Elko County among which are Mountain City, Bull Run, Van Duzer District, Gold Creek, etc. Mr. Brandon says that Elko county affords the prospector almost unlimited resources and so little of the large county has been prospected that there is plenty of chance for new locations and development work.

Mr. Brandon will return to Tuscarora, having been re-engaged as principal of the school.

If the liver is inactive, you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered, you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alternative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at S. J. CITY COUNCIL

The Articles of Agreement Offered by Schaw, Ingram & Batcher for Water Works and the Fort Wayne Electric Company for the Electric Light Plant Approved.

The City Council met last night pursuant to adjournment, all members being present. Councilman Noyes moved to dispense with the reading of the minutes and to proceed with the reading of the proposed contracts.—Carried.

The Clerk read the articles of agreement as proposed in the construction of the city water works and to be entered into by Schaw, Ingram, Batcher & Company of Sacramento and the City Council of Reno.

The contract price, terms of payment and time for completion of work is specified in detail. Provision is made for delays occurring from injunction proceedings, accident, calamity or other causes which ordinary prudence could not prevent. Such other details as were necessary to the completion of the contract were covered in the articles.

A similar agreement was presented and read covering the construction of an electric lighting plant by the Fort Wayne Electric Corporation of Fort Wayne. Councilman Wells offered a resolution providing for the approval of the two agreements read.

Councilman Noyes moved to amend the resolution by postponing action until Saturday night, motion lost. Councilman Noyes then moved to amend by postponing action until Friday evening. This amendment was also lost. Messrs. Ryland, Wells and Osburn voting against the amendments and Messrs. Noyes and Ryland favoring them.

The resolution was then adopted, Messrs. Osburn, Wells and Ryland voting aye and Messrs. Noyes and Ryland, nay.

Mr. Caffrey presented some blue prints covering specifications of electric plant, which were upon motion placed on file. Adjourned.

MOBILIZING THE VOLUNTEERS

The Carson and Reno Companies at Camp Sadler.

CARSON, July 7, 1898. The volunteers for the Nevada Infantry Battalion are now being mobilized at Camp Sadler. The fair grounds are being utilized for camping and drilling purposes and army tents again cover the ground where the cavalry troops spent some weeks.

This morning the Carson company 65 strong, Lieutenant Carney, Commanding, a fine looking body of men, all uniformed and armed, marched to camp and were busy during the day erecting tents and preparing for camp life. Each company will have a street in the camp which is supplied with running water, closets, etc., and the race track will be used for drilling purposes. At present the men board at the several hotels and restaurants, but it is probable that rations will be issued to them and that they will have to do their own cooking in camp as soon as utensils for the purpose are furnished them.

In the afternoon the Reno company, 73 strong, Captain C. E. Stoddard, Commanding, reached Carson on the Virginia and Truckee local train. They were met by the Carson troops who escorted them to Camp Sadler. The two companies made an imposing appearance and were loudly cheered as they marched through the streets to the camp. As the Reno troops outnumbered the other they were given right of line in the battalion.

The Comstock companies are expected to arrive on Saturday and the Elko and Winnemucca companies on Sunday.

As there are uniforms and arms for nearly all the volunteers and requisition has been made on the Quartermaster General for more, the battalion will probably leave the State fully equipped for service.

Company C Leaves for Carson.

Captain Stoddard and Company O left for Carson on yesterday afternoon's local, where they will go into camp and be mustered into the United States army. The boys, numbering some eighty odd, marched from their armory up Virginia Street to the depot, and as they passed, the people on the sidewalks greeted them with cheers and applause. A large crowd was at the depot to see them off and gave them a hearty farewell as the train pulled out.

Company C presents a fine appearance and when fully equipped and better drilled will be strictly in it. The boys will probably remain at Carson for two or three weeks before receiving orders to move, and no doubt will receive an ovation when they pass through Reno on their way to the front.

COLONEL LORD'S REPORT.

Militiamen Feel That the Colonel's Criticism is Uncalled For.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Referring to Colonel Lord's report to the Adjutant General regarding the few members of the State Militia who responded to the call as compared to the muster roll, we are inclined to think that it would have been the proper thing for the Colonel to have made a thorough investigation and then to have stated facts rather than criticizing militia members who were powerless to change the regulations concerning enlistment. Did the Colonel ascertain how many members of the militia were under age, whose parents refused to give consent for them to enlist? Did he ascertain how many were married and were either refused or unable to go on this account? Did he ascertain how many failed on the physical examination for various reasons among which defective eyesight prevailed to some extent? In addition to all these, many of the members are absent from the State and have joined other organizations. In our opinion the strictures on the State Militia are uncalled for and we doubt very much whether the Colonel could have passed under the regulations prescribed for a volunteer private and we have no doubt at all, notwithstanding his regrets at the laxity of the militiamen who have worn the uniform, that had he not had a commission in prospect he would not have gone with the men although he has enjoyed some considerable prominence and perhaps other advantages by his position as Colonel of the militia. This is evidenced by the fact that he lost no time in accepting the Paymaster's commission in the regular army, if reports are true.

While his recommendation that payments for armory rent be discontinued for the time being, may be acted upon by the State authorities and the allowance stopped, it is believed to be a questionable policy to do so. The sudden interest the Colonel displays in the poor taxpayer is praiseworthy, but to the ordinary observer it would appear that he was trying to make capital, or did not want any militia unless Colonel Lord had control. One fact is certainly patent and that the Colonel will hardly deny, is that he is a very crabbed man.

REJECTED MILITIAMEN. THE NEVADA BOYS.

They Attract Attention and Favorable Comment Wherever They Go.

Following is an extract from a letter received by Col. Maxson, from M. A. West, the gentleman he left in charge of Nevada's exhibit at the Omaha Exposition:

"Yesterday at 5:30 P. M. the Nevada troop got into Omaha and I went down there and met some of the boys. I saw Kate Thomas' brother, from Virginia City, the Russell boy from Elko, and two boys from Reno, Bryant and Young Ross from down on the meadows. None of the boys I met were with the common herd following each other around the saloons; some of the gang were pretty full and boisterous, but not one of the misbehaved boys were from Nevada. Young Ross said the Nevada boys were behaving fine and had been given a great many favors from the officers, among which were the first pick of horses, the right of line and the leaders in parade and drill, and were counted the best behaved in the entire troop. Bob Gracy was left behind with five of the boys to bring the sick horses and such other things that were left behind. They all speak well of Bob. I tried to see young Harris of Elko but could not find him. I took them down some of the Nevada papers that you have sent to the Nevada Exhibit here at Omaha, and they were mighty glad to get them. They left here about midnight."

That Court House Roof.

Delonchant and Odett's bid for the Court House roof was $6.25 per square, shingling and painting. Hodesworth's bid for the same work and material was $8.15 per square or 10 cents less per square than the successful bidder. Why is this thus, or what is the matter with Hodesworth?

CONDENSED WAR NEWS.

General Shafter has announced the exchange of Lieutenant Egghon and all his men. They have been received safely and are all well except two men just recovering from remittent fever.

Advices received from General Shafter announce that a number of high Spanish officials are deserting across the line at Santiago into the American camp. This is regarded as significant of surrender.

A rumor is current at Madrid that the bombardment of Santiago has commenced.

About midnight on the 5th the Reina Mercedes was seen by the Massachusetts, which had a searchlight on the channel, coming out of Santiago harbor. The Massachusetts and Texas opened fire and the Spanish vessel was sunk opposite Estrella Core. It is thought it was the intention to sink her in the channel and thus block the harbor entrance. If so this plan was defeated by the fire of the American vessel as she lies on the edge of the strait.

News has been received of the arrival of the second Manila expedition at Honolulu on the 23rd of June.

Admiral Carver has been transferred to the Iowa and is being treated with the greatest consideration.

In an interview he stated that he had been ordered to leave the harbor but would not say by whom.

The estimate of the Spanish loss in the naval battle is 1200 killed and 1500 captured.

Unofficial advices received at Washington which have heretofore proven accurate say that Spain will this week sue for peace. No such suggestion has been received from Spain.

General Young has refused to issue further rations to the Cubans until advices are received from Washington in answer to his exposure of the situation at Siboney. The Cubans refuse to assist in the hospital and commissary departments, claiming they are soldiers not laborers. This together with General Garcia's failure to prevent Pando entering Santiago has caused much dissatisfaction.

The White House conference has decided not to storm Santiago immediately, believing that its downfall can be secured without the loss of life and ships.

Early Tomatoes.

Early tomatoes, like early strawberries, are apt to be flavorless. At this time of the year they are better for cooking purposes than later, when they are really a luscious fruit. Fried tomatoes or tomato farces are both acceptable dishes at the moment. A good recipe for the latter is to cut the fruit in halves, remove part of the pulp, and fill them with a dressing made of fine bread crumbs, grated parmesan, pepper and salt, with, if liked, a few finely chopped mushrooms. The tomatoes are then baked on a buttered tin and served with or without a brown sauce.

Young Women Run a Dog Show.

The society young women of Grand Rapids have for three years given a successful bench show, and their third annual exhibition, held last month, cleared about $1,000. The young women who planned these popular shows call themselves the Butterfly Bench Show association of Grand Rapids, and they apply their profits to maintaining a free bed in a hospital and assisting the sick poor of their city.

Strawberry Mash.

A glorified form of strawberry mash is made as follows: Pick three pounds of ripe strawberries and mash them with a wooden spoon, together with one pound of fine sugar, the juice of a lemon and a few drops of cream. Rub this through a hair sieve and add a pint and a half of stiffly whipped cream. Freeze buried in ice and salt for two hours.
